

Report to the Kentucky Library Association Board
President-Elect
Lexington, Kentucky
June 15, 2013

The schedule for the 2013 KLA Fall Conference has been tentatively set and includes two preconference sessions: "Collaborative Creativity and Content: KYVL's Learning Depot" and Maureen Sullivan presenting "Collaborate and Communicate to Ensure the Community Values Your Library." Additional events include breakfast with Frank X. Walker, luncheons with authors Richard Paul Evans and Tom Angleberger, additional author sessions with Mark Wayne Adams and Tammi Lyon. Opening session speaker will feature ALA President Barbara Stripling presenting "Whose Life Will You Change Today?" Thursday evening will feature a social gathering and proceeds will benefit the continuing education fund.

I look forward to representing KLA at the ALA Annual Conference in Chicago June 27 – July 2.

Respectfully submitted,

Brenda Metzger
President-Elect
